MARCH WAS BANNER MONTH

The month of March was characterized by the maximum creamery production in Fallon, the Churchill Creamery, Inc., turning out in that period 22,000 pounds of glistening butter for consumption. The local product is rapidly gaining fame on the tables of epicures and it is being more and more eagerly sought. At the present time there are about 1400 milch cows in the project, of are being milked at this time. Dairying is certain to become the banner here, excepting none. Standard
